

HERITAGE CHAPTERS

Our Family Story

BALTIMORE — MEUSE, FRANCE

Henry Gunther, before 1918 · public domain

Henry Nicholas John Gunther

of East Baltimore, Maryland

Son of George and Lena Gunther · Brother of Charles

6 June 1895

Born in Baltimore, Maryland

1910

Living in Baltimore's First Ward with his parents and brother

5 June 1917

Registered for the draft; bookkeeper at the National Bank of Baltimore

11 November 1918

Died in France, on the day the war ended

A bank bookkeeper from east Baltimore with gray eyes and dark hair, he signed his draft card with all three of his names. He was remembered as the last American soldier to fall in the First World War.

Research report HC-001: Timeline p. 7 · Evidence p. 10 · Photographs p. 12 · Sources p. 17

Historical case study · prepared 16 October 2026 · HC-001

Prepared from the historical records cited in the research report. A commemorative page, not an official civil or legal certificate.

HERITAGE CHAPTERS

Our Family Story

BALTIMORE — MEUSE, FRANCE

Henry Gunther, before 1918 · public domain

Henry Nicholas John Gunther

of East Baltimore, Maryland

Son of George and Lena Gunther · Brother of Charles

6 June 1895

Born in Baltimore, Maryland

1910

Living in Baltimore's First Ward with his parents and brother

5 June 1917

Registered for the draft; bookkeeper at the National Bank of Baltimore

11 November 1918

Died in France, on the day the war ended

A bank bookkeeper from east Baltimore with gray eyes and dark hair, he signed his draft card with all three of his names. He was remembered as the last American soldier to fall in the First World War.

Research report HC-001: Timeline p. 7 · Evidence p. 10 · Photographs p. 12 · Sources p. 17

Historical case study · prepared 16 October 2026 · HC-001

Prepared from the historical records cited in the research report. A commemorative page, not an official civil or legal certificate.